BIO:

Paulina Chapko is the Polish theater and film actress born on November 15, 1985 in Nowy Sącz (Poland). Paulina graduated the National Theater School Acting Class in Wrocław in 2008, and in the same year she received an award of the Minister of Culture And National Heritage for the role of Jana in the play titled "Zwyczajne szaleństwa", performed during the XXVIth Acting Schools Festival in Łódź. She has been collaborating with the Jerzy Szaniawski Dramatic Theater (Wałbrzych), and Scena STU from Cracow. In 2008 Paulina joined the theatrical group of the Polski Theatre in Wrocław. She is currently playing roles in that theater on the following plays: "Titus Andronicus", "Utwór o Matce i Ojczyźnie", and "Ziemia Obiecana". Some of Paulina's most important movie roles are: one of the main roles in a 2013 movie "Oszukane", and standing roles in the TV series "Ojciec Mateusz" (2012-2014), "Galeria" (2011-2013), and "Ludzie Chudego" (2010-2011). This year Paulina joined the crew of the TV series "Na Wspólnej" (as Elżbieta Marciniak), and “Dziewczyny ze Lwowa” (as an actress Kasia). In 2014 Paulina became a lecturer on The National Theater School Acting Class in Wrocław. She perceives this new challenge as an important professional experience, and working with students gives her new energy. During this years Venice Film Festival “11 Minutes”, a movie by Jerzy Skolimowski, was premiered, and Paulina plays the role of Wife, a very important figure in that movie. The movie is the Polish candidate for the Oscars in 2016.
